Beyond the Walls is a local, Mendham-based nonprofit that is dedicated to making substantial long-term impact in the lives of the poor and disadvantaged through focused opportunities in our community, our country and the world.

Our largest effort to date has been focused on the Guatemala City garbage dump, where close to 12,000 people live in crushing poverty, depending on the garbage in the dump for their livelihoods. Over the past 12 years, 1,000 BTW volunteers have built more than 85 concrete-block homes for deserving families, provided for the education (K-10) of 50 children, treated hundreds of adults and children in medical clinics, and personally touched the lives and hearts of countless children through craft and sports camps.

Our newest project is on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota, serving the Lakota tribe, some the poorest people in our nation.

We also partner with Morris County nonprofits to serve homeless families and men recovering from addiction. In addition, Beyond the Walls exists to encourage, empower, and inspire volunteers "to whom much is given" to be agents of change in under-resourced communities by connecting them to relational, hands-on service.

We also believe that volunteers derive at least as much benefit from our projects as do the beneficiaries, which is why we say...

The life you change could be your own.

Awards and Auction Results

The Verduga and Timmerman families at the 2016 T/VM Golf Classic

Why It's Important

Jack Timmerman and Calvin Verduga were caring, compassionate young men who were destined to affect our world for good. Both outstanding athletes, the two best friends were looking forward to playing football for the Randolph Rams when they were killed in a tragic car crash. We honor their legacy by continuing to serve in their names. The proceeds of this event will be used to fund projects in Guatemala City, on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota, and in Morris County, NJ, where Jack and Calvin grew up.

Thank you for helping us remember Jack and Calvin by serving their neighbors and ours.
